WISCONSIN PASSES FIRST STATEWIDE GAY RIGHTS BILL

Excerpted from GAYLIFE, CHICAGO

"I have decided to sign this bill for one basic reason, to protect one's right to privacy." And so he did. Gov. Lee Dreyfus on Feb. 25 further stated, "I have decided to sign this bill for one basic reason, to protect one's right to privacy. Discrimination on sexual preference, if allowed, clearly must allow inquiries into one's private life that go beyond reasonable inquiry and in fact invade one's privacy."

The bill was sponsored by Rep. David Clarenback (D-Madison). The law adds the term "sexual orientation" to the state's existing list of categories in which discrimination is prohibited. Dreyfus said that enactment of the law does not "imply approval or encouragement" of homosexuality any more than laws banning religious discrimination suggest approval "of certain religions or creeds." In an indirect reference to the often controversial subject of gay teachers, he stated, "I feel very strongly that one's sexual preferences, either homosexual or heterosexual, have absolutely no place for expression in our classrooms generally, and [such expression] should not be tolerated..."

"MAKING LOVE" SECOND HIGHEST GROSSING NEW FILM.

"MAKING LOVE", a sure hit with Phoenix audiences, and a film receiving a tremendous amount of both gay and straight press throughout the country, ranked number two in dollars grossed for the week ending February 17, according to VARIETY. Most reviews have been complementary toward the treatment of two men touching and kissing on the screen. Audience reaction has been reportedly mixed to positive as pertains the treatment by the director. The "Camelot"-ish roles portrayed by the characters have come under much closer scrutiny with a call for more realism in role playing and in assignment of professional positions, attitudes and ultimate solutions.

The film grossed a reported $1,400,800 in it's first week, second only to ON GOLDEN POND, with a gross of over $2,000,000. PERSONAL BEST, also gay oriented, ranked seventh.

ARIZONA HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE MOVES QUICKLY ON 'OBSCENITY MEASURES'

House Bill 2510 met with quick approval of the House Judiciary Committee, Monday. Most directly the bill deals with the broadcasting of film material which could be construed as possibly obscene or pornographic in nature. ON TV, represented at the hearings by attorney Michael Green, has come under the most direct fire by proponents of the measure which sponsors a subscription service dealing with sexually oriented films to it's subscribers. Their contention is that the service is voluntary and therefore is not being forced on any viewer. Also the matter of whether such a subscription service, through which viewing can only be accomplished by subscription, can be so legislated upon.

This bill is accompanied with HB 2512, reported on in this issue by Roland Atkins. Together, and if passed, they form a strong network of legislation through which moral issue advocates could limit and control both locations and materials they deal in, and locations where persons gather, both for what they deem to be immoral. According to information received, locations have already been targeted including bars and book-stores. Under the accompanying bill, 2512, posters on display, editorializing in flyers and notices, and gatherings of persons in those places which have same could be subject to closure. The bill states under Moral nuisances: "Any place of business in this state in which obscene publications constitute all of the stock in trade, or a principal part of the stock in trade. If the obscene publications constitute only a part of the stock in trade and are located in a place within the business which is capable of demarcation, the place constitutes the nuisance". This, in it's broadest sense, but one not to be overlooked, can be construed to include bars, card shops, poster/head shops, record stores, book stores, and any other merchant who provides for his or her customer reading material of an obscene nature as deemed so by the complainant.

HB 2510 now passes to the Senate Judiciary Committee for ruling.

ROBIN TYLER IN CONCERT

Anti-Reagan, Anti-Corporate and Auntie Mame

Outrageously relevant comic Robin Tyler will be performing on Friday, March 26, 1982 at 8:00 P.M. The concert will be held at The First United Methodist Church, 914 E. 4th St., (Social Hall - enter on Tyndall) in Tucson.

Robin is a stand-up comic and producer who for nine years was half of the female comedy team of Harrison and Tyler. They are credited with making comedy history by being the first comics to make women the subject rather than the object of humor. Off-stage, as early as 1971 they stopped a Rams-Raiders football game by running onto the field and demanding more sports scholarships for women and equal pay in athletics. They went on to organize and entertain women all over the world and took the only anti-war show ever to get into Vietnam - and did it all through the USO! They made two comedy albums, their second on 20th Century Fox; three national pilots for ABC Television, and starred in the prime time "Krofft Comedy Hour" in 1978.

As a solo performer, Robin has continued to appear on campuses, in clubs and in concerts both in the U.S. and Canada. She has released one album through Olivia Records, "Always A Bridesmaid, Never A Groom", and will release a second album in March 1983.

As a producer, she has produced major shows, including the concert the night before the March on Washington, October 1979, which drew 10,000 people, making it the largest lesbian/gay show in history. She produced the 7th National Women's Music Festival and financed and co-founded the West Coast Women's Music and Cultural Festival.

She is Jewish, an Aries, and above all a Survivor.

Robin will be coming to Tucson with all new material. She will give her interpretation of the birth of the baby Jesus; she will explain the plight of a performer with CATS left at home; and will reveal the real enemy in the Billy Jean King/Marilyn Barnett controversy. Her humor is so socially relevant, it is a show that should not be missed!

There will be Free Childcare and Wheelchair Accessibility. For more information, call pm productions: 623-9559 in Tucson.

Ticket donation is $6.00. Advance tickets are available at Antigone Books, 403 E. 5th St., ASUA Women's Center - U of A Student Union Building, Books Brothers, 3242 E. Speedway, Ruby's 2512 E. Grant Road and AT THE DOOR.

SPEAKING OUT

by B.A. WILLSON

Is there any anyone out there in this whole wide world who likes to be ripped-off? Who likes the sense of loss, the feeling of betrayal, the hopeless outrage? I'm sure every one of you has experienced one or more of the above conditions at some point in your life. But did you like it? Hell no!

I wonder if the thieves ever look at it from that viewpoint. Do they realize how much hurt they cause their victims, how much anguish? A person works and works and works, building a life, a few material possessions, perhaps a little extra wealth (the substance that dreams are made of), only to have it all fly-by-night with some creep in black clothes.

Gone, just like that. Little is ever recovered, the police only mouth useless platitudes; the victim just has to eat the loss. Definitely the proverbial bitter pill.

Recently one of the fine bars in our little community was broken into and relieved of hundreds of dollars worth of stock, and the contents of a safe. The police then showed their true colors at the scene of the crime, adding insult to injury by arresting one of the owners of the bereft establishment for, get this: an outstanding traffic violation for non-current auto registration! He went to jail. Surely there is a moral there somewhere.

Then there are the people who totally infuriate me, who smirk as they say, "Big deal. So they were robbed; they can handle it. They've got so much money they don't know what to do with it all."

To those people I reply with a sarcastic, "Poppycock"!

I am closely associated with a bar owner and have been for some time. I've seen it all with my very own eyes. The more profits a business turns, the higher the overhead, taxes and expenses grow. My boss feels fortunate to be able to draw a salary.

When a business is ripped-off, it's the same as it would be if it were anyone else. We all feel it just the same, and every victim has my sincerest sympathy.

ARC GETS COFFEE HOUSE UNDERWAY

Looking for a way to meet people outside of the bar?

What a chance to visit friends in a nice atmosphere without the influence of alcohol?

Would you like to visit in some of the nice homes of the Phoenix gay community?

Well here comes your chance to accomplish all of the above. The Alternative Relations Center of Phoenix will re-open the Coffee House program next month, beginning Saturday, April 17! The program will then be open every 1st and 3rd Saturday evening from 8:00 P.M. - 10:30 P.M., each open house at a new location.

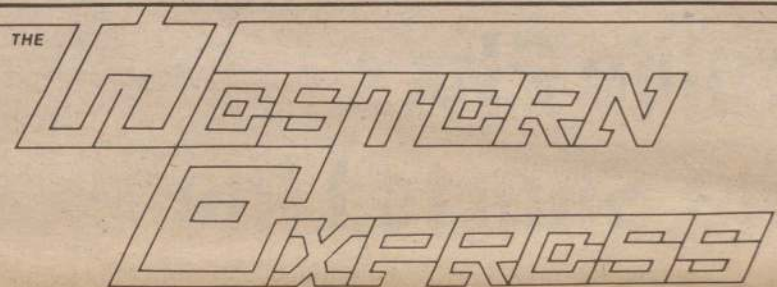

The Coffee House program is free to everyone - men and women alike. You only need bring some little "goodies" or munchies to go with coffee and tea. Soft drinks are also available. A rule of the Coffee House is that there be absolutely no use of any drugs or alcoholic beverages.

The idea of the Coffee House was originated by Free Spirit about three years ago. When that organization dissolved, the Coffee House idea also disappeared. Yet, the program was so successful and filled such a common need that ARC would like to revive the idea. And so, we begin it anew.

This is an opportunity to meet new friends, and renew old friendships. It is completely informal. No "program" is conducted, or is anyone asked to be involved in anything but pleasant conversation, listening to music, and relaxing in the comfort of gay and lesbian comradeship.

If you are one in our community who would like to open your home on a one-time-only Saturday evening for the Coffee House program, please call the ARC Assistance line (274-0927) and give your name and telephone number. Either Draffan McBride or Ron Peterson, Coordinators of Coffee House, will be back with you and put your home into the schedule. This is a fun experience for the home owner.

Put Coffee House on your calendar now - Saturday, April 17. You can stop in any time between 8:00 P.M. - 10:30 P.M. Oh yes, the first Coffee House will be at the home of Ron and Robert, 733 W. Portland in Central Phoenix, just off the downtown area. (Portland is one block north of Roosevelt - or six blocks south of McDowell and one block west of 7th. Avenue).

CHARTER MEMBER

“MORAL NUISANCE” BILL
HAS DANGEROUS
IMPLICATIONS FOR ARIZONA
BY ROLAND ATKINS

A bill, HR 2512, has been introduced in the Arizona House of Representatives defining a new legal outlaw: that of being a “Moral Nuisance”.
This bill, penned and introduced by New Right advocates Representatives Carlson-West (R-Mesa), Skelly (R-Scottsdale), and West (R-Phoenix), would create a new concept in Arizona Law. It defines a “Moral Nuisance” to be “... anything which is injurious to public morals or indecent so as to interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property. A Moral Nuisance is a nuisance per se”.

- Under the bill, a “Moral Nuisance” is:
- Any place where obscene film (slide, videotape) is publicly and repeatedly shown or possessed for exhibition;
  - Any obscene film (slide, videotape) which is publicly shown or possessed for the purpose of exhibition;
  - Any publication at a place which is a “Moral Nuisance”;
  - Any place where gambling is done;
  - Any money paid for admission to a “Moral Nuisance”;
  - The furniture and moveable contents of a place which is a “Moral Nuisance”; and,
  - Any place of business which is used for obscenity, assignation or prostitution or any place where such acts take place.

Under this bill, bookstores, bars, baths, and possibly even your own homes, if used for anything “obscene” or where “assignation (making or any act in furtherance of an appointment or engagement for obscenity or prostitution)” could be charged with being a “Moral Nuisance”.

A “Moral Nuisance” charge is a charge under civil law, now criminal; in effect, a lawsuit. The charge may be brought by any public official or by any private citizen, who must post a $500 bond. If the charge is proven in court, the results would be:

- A permanent injunction against the “Moral Nuisance” - closure of the “place” or permanent abatement of the acts; and,
- Leins against the owner of the “place” if costs are not paid.

On Monday, March 8, the “Moral Nuisance” bill was passed out of the House Judiciary Committee and is now on its way to the Senate Judiciary Committee, along with a companion bill which would outlaw sex films from being shown on cable TV and in theaters. Citizens For Decency Through Law attorneys and spokespersons defended the bills at the hearing, and went so far as to show Judiciary Committee members an eight-minute film clip of what they consider to be “patently offensive sexual activity”.

If the bill passes through the Senate Judiciary Committee, it will be bound for a vote of the Legislature before the Session ends.

This bill is an outright attempt to infringe upon our rights. It would allow anyone with $500 to spare to harass and possibly close any business or private establishment that they didn’t like. It is very easy to bring such charges and very difficult and expensive to defend against them.

Don’t waste a minute! Write or call your State Representatives and Senators immediately, stating in no uncertain terms your opposition to this bill. Also call or write the Senate Judiciary Committee members and tell them as well.

The following 9 Senators comprise the Senate Judiciary Committee: Jim Koble (Chair) 255-4136; John Mawhinney (V-Chair) 255-4326; Peter Kay 255-5955; Hal Runyan 255-4173; Jacque Steiner 255-4916; Jaime Gutierrez 255-5262; Arthur Hubbard 255-4178; Jones Osborn 255-4139; William Swink 255-4124.

Mr. Atkins, a member of Citizens for Constitutional Rights (CCR), is also Field Associate for the Gay Rights National Lobby (GRNL). It should be pointed out that response to legislators, whether by phone or in letter, need not carry any implication of a person’s political, social or sexual attitudes and preferences. These can be addressed in a form indicating an interest in the matter at hand regardless of those attitudes or preferences.

SOOT OF REALITY
B.A. WILLSON

*The false illusion of scanty reality streams through a broken pane:
Suffocating, condemning.
The world seeks to whitewash its own existence.
Fanatics of a rabid sort persecute the armies of inverts tirelessly,
Hounding them to dark corners.
Denying them the right to life.
What is their crime?
Love —
They love differently than the self-proclaimed normal,
But surely any brand of love is still love.
Some cringe before accusing fingers and hostile faces:
What have they done wrong?
Some grow bitter, militant.
They strike back, showing the sneering world that they can be just as hateful.
Both are wrong, but there is a burning need within the invert
To live without shame.
To love without shame.*

BOOK REVIEW

by JIM SHAFER

SOUTHERN DISCOMFORT, by Rita Mae Brown, Harper & Row, N.Y. 1982.

That outrageous and wonderful author who gave us Plain Brown Rapper, Rubyfruit Jungle, and Six of One, to list but three of her delightful works, has done it again! This time R.M.B. has taken on the old Frances Parkinson Keys/Victoria Holt — Romantic Novel and turned it inside-out.

Set in Montgomery, Ala. from 1918 until 1929 and the eve of the great depression, this tale of survival — and make no mistake, that's what it's really about: survival in the fact of all the repressions the different strata of society force upon people who do not conform to the 'ideal' morality — is peopled with all the warm, strong, independently-minded sort of folk whom we've enjoyed and loved and with whom we've identified in R.M.B.'s previous novels. Strange as it may seem, many of these characters fit the Conservative and Objectivist descriptions of what strong, upright citizens should be like, though it is doubtful Barry Goldwater or the late Ayn Rand would have much truck with these rugged individualists if they knew them the way the reader gets to know them. This is a must read!!

FUNERAL GAMES by Mary Renault, Pantheon Books, N.Y. 1981.

With Funeral Games Renault concludes her Alexandrian novels. Fire From Heaven was the first and told the story of the youth, Alexander, and of his few close friendships and of his education. It ended with the death of King Philip II of Macedon and Alexander's accession to the throne. The Persian Boy told of the whirl-wind conquest of the known world, the continuing love between Alexander and his boyhood friend/lover, Hephaestion, and of the love Alexander accepted from and shared the Persian eunuch, Bagoas.

This third novel, as with the two previous works, makes of the limited historical facts a skeleton upon which Renault fleshes out a vivid tale of lives, loves, and power struggles of the leading characters on the Alexandrian world-stage. Upon the death of the still-young Alexander in Babylon, the various factions among his generals and family make attempts, one after another, to claim the empire for themselves until, finally, the strongest establish themselves as rulers of a divided empire: the various satrapies as separate kingdoms. How this all comes about is the stuff of fine historical fiction in the hands of Renault, and her many fans, indeed all lovers of this genre, should enjoy this latest work of the pre-eminent reteller of ancient tales.

Southern Discomfort and Funeral Games are both available in Phoenix at Womansplace Bookstore and in Tucson at both Antigone Bookstore and at Books Brothers.

TONY'S LOCKER ROOM

by TONY BARTOLI

Normally, we try to dutifully report the sports news around town but we're going to depart from the usual procedure and dedicate this column to a very good friend of our community, Berta Crippa. And rightly so in this sports column, since Berta is a great sportsfan, bowler extraordinaire, and always an all-around good sport.

Over the years Berta has proven to be clearly the best of the female bowlers in both the Sunday morning and Monday evening leagues. Before having to leave the leagues for health reasons, Berta was averaging an amazing 171 on Sunday with a 233 high game and 599 series. Averaging in the 160's on Monday evening Berta had the third high average for the entire league.

But besides being a great bowler, Berta is known and loved by all as one of our towns more colorful personalities. I first met Berta at the Boardwalk as she was attempting to buy her pet rock a cocktail. Now she knew the rock couldn't drink, but it seemed like a hell of an idea at the time. The topper to the evening was as she was leaving 'slightly' under the influence, she proceeded to drop the thing on her friends foot, breaking the poor persons foot. Berta also was a great tuber. But she gave it up when she had a run in with a bridge and nearly drowned. And who but Berta would be asked not to return to a local golf course after tearing up 17 out of 18 greens with her golf cart.

One of the great story and joke tellers of all time, it seemed almost downright 'evil' when she and Danny B. would get together telling stories by the hour. And, in this reporters opinion, some of the absolute best jokes ever told. But we all know Danny B. was (and still is) responsible for most of those.

Berta's zest for games makes her one of the best pinball and video game players in the valley, and her expertise with a pool cue has left some of the best talking to themselves. From turning the MGM Grand in Las Vegas into a carry out diner to the picture of her 'pride and joy', Berta has put a smile on a lot of faces in the valley. She has that certain gift of lighting up a room just by being there.

Berta, this column was written before your Roast Sunday at Shamoo's. I'm sure your many friends throughout the valley will be there to pay tribute to a very deserving lady. Speaking for all of us, our thoughts and prayers are with you through these trying times, and God willing, we will all be laughing together again in the near future. We salute a fine lady and a very good friend.

SHAMOO'S WARNS OF FORGED ENDORSEMENTS

Sometime during the pre-dawn hours of March 7, burglars broke into Shamoo's, 3025 N. 24th St., Phoenix. Forceable entry was gained through the ceiling and once inside, a safe was broken into and various equipment was vandalized.

Included in stolen goods were checks which had been cashed between Thursday, March 4 and Saturday evening, March 6. Owners have requested that customers who cashed checks during that period at the bar be especially aware in checking the endorsement on the back of the check when it is returned by the bank. The endorsement, if anything other than that of Shamoo's, may help in apprehending the burglars. The fact that the checks were taken in the first place might be an indication that a forgery of endorsement is planned. If anything is noticed that is irregular in the endorsement, please contact Shamoo's at 956-9937 immediately. Customers should be aware that they would not suffer a loss if in fact one of their checks do carry a forged endorsement. Those are charged back against the party or bank accepting the check from the original endorser.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Recent issues of THE WESTERN EXPRESS have provided the community with pertinent information regarding ARC... it's continuing programs, future aspirations, new board members, work accomplished by previous boards and memberships.

As the former Fund Raising Coordinator for the 1980 ARC Buildathon, I became thoroughly knowledgeable of ARC'S out reach programs and those organizations peripherally affiliated with the center. Personally, I felt honored to be associated with an organization dedicated to assisting those in need and providing an alternative outlet for the community at large.

Although extensive credit must be extended to those dedicated ARC members who worked selflessly and conscientiously towards raising funds for a new center - credit for a phenomenally successful fund raising campaign can only be allocated to the gay community, businesses and individuals alike, who understood the need, opened their hearts and unselfishly gave of their personal resources to enable ARC to obtain permanent headquarters within which to continue it's programs for the gay community.

Unfortunately, as the community is aware, between the Phoenix Zoning Board and some vocal members of the 'straight' community, ARC was prohibited in providing social activities that would have assisted in financially sustaining both the center and it's programs.

Today! Now! We, as a collective gay entity, must once again evaluate our continuing involvement in the future of ARC. As with all non-profit community-oriented organizations, the future of it's existence depends solely upon the total support and generosity of the community it directly serves.

Presently, several concerned individuals, businesses and ARC members have been responsible for the continued existence of ARC. Only through their financial support has the center been able to continue as a viable community organization. They cannot be the only ones to assist. Even their resources are limited. What is desperately required is the continued financial support of the total gay community.

Your support can be in the form of a yearly contribution, ARC membership, or a monthly contribution/pledge that will not strain your budget. The combination of the above will enable ARC to continue it's services, enlarge it's programs and be a source of pride to those of us who constitute the gay community.

We were extremely proud in 1980 when we produced a gay cohesiveness, almost unparalleled in national gay support. And proud we should have been. What was accomplished in those two months was almost statistically impossible. Yet we did it!

Let's continue that track record. Support ARC. Become the solid foundation for program continuation and enlargement. Enable ARC, through your continued support, to expand to it's full potential.

Only you can assure it's future.

Jerry W. Boehm.

Dear Editor:

Bernie Wynn of The Arizona Republic is confused!

One week he wrote that Donna Carlson West, who covets John Rhode's seat in Congress, adheres to the philosophy of Abe Lincoln that "You cannot further the brother-hood of man by encouraging class hatred." About a week later he writes "Rep. Carlson West has strong party credentials dating back to 1968 but is known for her extreme right-wing activities and is feared as a politician who uses power for personal causes."

We who have endured Ms. West's shenanigans during the 70's know that your second statement is closer to the truth Mr. Wynn! She is famous for her support of anti-gay legislation and for her vicious attacks on the gay community.

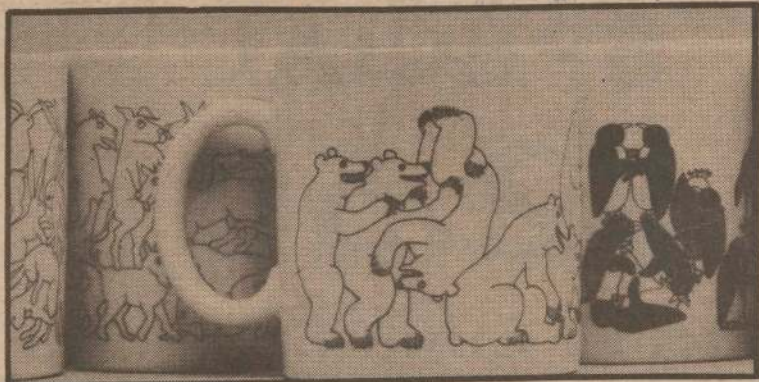

First district Republicans take heed! Do we need another bigot in Washington representing us? Ms. West has never shown tolerance for a class of people who are the way God has created us.

PROFILE PHX

by BARRY ALEXANDER

Often things come to my attention that I must mention. This time I have a great deal for each of you to think about but it will be said as briefly as possible.

Many times gay businesses go to a great deal of effort to promote their businesses or have an event appealing to everyone. Unfortunately many of these activities are not supported by the community because they are held in bars. What difference does it make if the event is held in a bar? Where else can you go and be with people of common interests and preferences? Let's face it, bars are the only places we can really be ourselves. So you say you don't drink or don't 'dig' the bar scene. You don't have to drink to go into a bar or have a good time. And not liking the bar scene is understandable, but it must be terribly frustrating staying at home and never really getting to know other gay people or a lifestyle you have supposedly chosen.

There are many gay businesses looking for your support and serious consideration should be given to gay owned or oriented businesses before selecting goods and services. Remember it is to your advantage to keep your money gay. It will come back to you in many ways.

Gay people have never realized how much power or influence they really can have. It is time to quit the complaining. The next time someone suggests going to a bar or other gay business, don't think twice about it - just do it. The only real loser from inactivity and apathy is you. It's time to register to vote, get involved and let everyone know we are here. The old adage of "put up or shut up" is appropriate and becomes much more so every day.

It's time to digest this as food for thought. Phoenix is only as great as you make it. All the activities in the world will not help if you will not become involved or support them. Surely Phoenix is big enough for all of us. Only you have a say in your future. Delusions of grandeur are long gone. It is the cold hard facts that survive. Of course, it is all up to you.

DOING AMERICA WITH BOB DAMRON

HAWAII - THE NEIGHBOR ISLANDS

Our fiftieth state, Hawaii, was once known as the Sandwich Isles, but Paradise Islands would be more appropous! I have previously written about glamorous Waikiki Beach and Honolulu on the almost claustrophobic island of Oahu - and unfortunately this is the only part of Hawaii that many tourists ever see. Of the major neighboring islands, Lanai and Molokai can be lovely, but certainly not lively, particularly if you're gay. But this is surely not true of Maui, Kauai or Hawaii.

You can reach Honolulu by direct air service from almost anyplace in the world, or you can jet from Los Angeles to Hilo on luxury DC-10's. For inter-island hopping, Hawaiian Air, Aloha, Mid-Pacific and Royal Hawaiian offer frequent low-fare daily flights. If you have a week to spare, the American Hawaii Lines' SS Oceanic Independence is one of the cruisiest cruise ships of all time - and a great way to 'sea' the islands.

Maui, the "Valley Island" offers a provincial alternative to over-crowded Oahu. Gay life is centered on the west coast near the charming old whaling town of Lahaina. Hamburger Mary's at 608 Front St. is Maui's first gay bar, but Kimo's and the Blue Max attract some 'hot' numbers if you have time to play games. Makena is a nude beach about forty miles north, where quality, not quantity, really counts.

Kaanapali Beach is just a couple of miles north of Lahaina - a beautiful and very expensive resort that is beginning to look like a new-wave Waikiki. I like the magnificently situated Sheraton-Maui, and for straight dining suggest Alex's Hole in the Wall, Chez Paul, La Bretagne, Swan Court at the new Hyatt Regency or the Bay Club in Kapalua. Camera buffs won't want to miss Haleakala National Park, Hana, Iao Needle, Kihei-Wailea beaches or whale-watching off Maui's west coast.

Kauai, the "Garden Isle", has that rare sort of beauty that ought not to exist outside of one's imagination. A 'must' way to see it is by helicopter, which encompasses sugarcane fields, tranquil lagoons, rugged coastline, and otherwise inaccessible beaches. You also dive dizzily into the spectacular gorges of Mount Waialeale - the wettest spot on earth with up to 600 inches of rain annually. A true 'fantasy island', Kauai (kow-eye) was once the home of the

THE SPORTS LINE

By JIM LARRABEE

TUCSON — There was a full moon Monday, March 8. The "Jupiter Effect" was fast approaching its peak influence. What impact these celestial occurrences had on the members of the Community Mixed Bowling League was not discernable. What was obvious at evening's end? The recorded scores. There were only two 500 series for the 36 bowlers comprising the league. Four in the last four weeks. The league-wide slump continues.

Though the overall pinfall was not impressive, the level of enthusiasm remained high. The Sun Doggies revealed their competitive pedigree and literally howled after recapturing first place, having spent two weeks in third. They proved to be nothing but bad road as they dead-ended the '63 Buicks. In other matchups, second place Schmoo's found the Back Pocket anything but easy pickings, struggling to gain a tie. Rita's Rendezvous won three of four points from Hall/Nik Unlimited while showing them otherwise. The Desert Sons overcame the Menage mirage. The Joshua Tree was felled by the Arizonans. And Michael's rowed their boat ashore with extreme ease — much to the dismay of the Three Cochas.

A meeting to organize the third annual Spring Volleyball league was held Sunday, March 7 at the Joshua Tree/Back Pocket (1:00). The turn-out was substantial enough to warrant a March 14 beginning for the 10-12 week season. After teams were formed (6), playing rules and officiating procedures were discussed, an open practice session was utilized by the majority of those attending.

And for the remaining baseball fans, the exhibition season of the Major Leagues has begun. The Cleveland Indians, spring training here in Tucson will play 15 of their 28 scheduled games at our local Hi Corbett field.

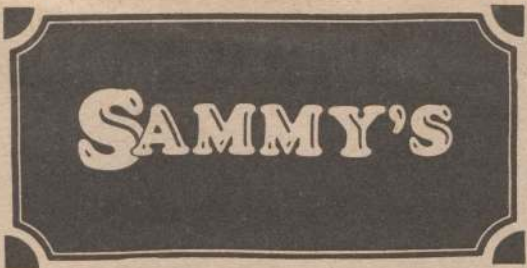

Bill Folk, gay singer/songwriter, during recent recording session in Nashville.

FOLK RECORDS IN NASHVILLE

Recently returned from Nashville, Phoenix singer/songwriter Bill Folk has now completed recording of his latest 45rpm record, "We Are Here." Bill wrote the song for Arizona's first Lesbian and Gay Rights March in June 1981. Since then Bill has been working to raise funds for the recording project. "I'm very excited about the record," says Bill "and it should be available in Phoenix very soon now."

The recording was produced by Geof Morgan, a veteran singer/songwriter/recording artist, who has written popular songs for such stars as Barbara Mandress and Ronnie Milsap. "Geof is a very special person" says Bill. "With his expertise in the studio and sensitivity to my music, he ensured we have a first rate recording."

"We Are Here" is one of the first major songs of Gay Pride that speaks to so many of those in the lesbian and gay movement. Its anthem-like style has been a moving experience to the thousands who have heard it performed in the U.S. and Canada. The 45rpm record will be released by Bright Moon Records and distributed internationally. It will be available at many local stores.

Maui West Coast

elfin-like Menehune, and was the only major island not conquered by King Kamehameha the Great.

There are no gay bars in this lush little paradise but you can score almost anywhere, from the beach at Poipu to the golflinks at Coco Palms. I love the Kauai Surf Hotel, and have met some hot ones (frequently Australian or Canadian) just outside my door on marvelous Kalapaki Beach. The excellent food at Kauai Surf's Golden Cape Restaurant shares equal billing with the hunky waiters. Other good dining can be found at Whaler's Cove near Koloa and the Coconut Palace in Wailua.

Hilo, on the "Big Island" of Hawaii is the largest city on any of the neighbor isles - but is still an unpretentious canefield town at heart! Oddly, the best bar night is Monday, when the peppy crew of the SS Oceanic Independence is in town, and everyone meets at the Harbor Lite, 11 Silva, just off Kalaniana'ole. Otherwise you will have to settle for the drags and dregs at City Tavern or very mixed company at Apple Annie's. I like the Hilo Hawaiian Hotel, which has a gorgeous view of Hilo Bay. For dining try Rosey's Boathouse, Kapuna Room at the Sheraton Waiakea, or Fuji Japan-se Restaurant. From lava to luxury characterizes Hawaii's south-east coast - and Hilo offers exotic hotels along Banyan Drive or it's dilapidated downtown, which looks more Asiatic than most Asian cities.

On the westside of the "Big Island" is the lovely Kona Coast, and somewhere in between you may want to visit Kohala, Mauna Kea, City of Refuge, Punaluu Black Sand Beach or Volcano House - a fun place to stop for brunch while viewing eerie Hawaii Volcanos National Park. Kailua is the heart of the scenic Kona coast, and I like the Kona Hilton, where a parrot once tried to bite off my lover's finger. For your dining try Reuben's or the Pottery Steak House. Gay contacts are 'Iffy', but look around Dorian's Restaurant, Old Kona Airport Park, Union Jack or World Square Liquors. Sunbathing, surfing, snorkeling, sailing, swimming, golf and tennis are great here or almost anywhere in the neighbor islands.

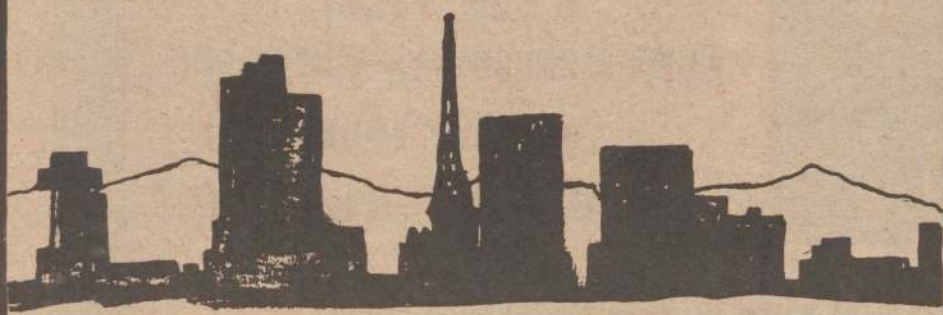

Most visitors love the Hawaiian islands, with the possible exception of Captain Cook, who managed to get himself murdered here. He 'discovered' the islands in 1778, but a disagreement with the islanders led to his early expiration date! Cook wasn't the last Haole (foreigner) to meet an untimely death here, but I like to think that most people get what they deserve. Don't fret about it, for Hawaii is safe, warm and wonderful! But if you plan to visit Oahu, don't just stop there. See some of the neighbor islands and discover true adventures in paradise!
